Why designate a medical clinic for injury care?

- Ensure timely treatment within the Exclusive Provider Organization (EPO).
- Remove the uncertainty of where your employee should treat, if injured.
- Physicians are familiar with treating occupational injuries and illnesses.
- Clinic staff believe that return-to-work is important to recovery.
- Build employees comfort and confidence for a successful return to work.
- Promotes employer communication and relationship development.

Primary providers within the UCWCP's Exclusive Provider Organization (EPO) understand and agree to treat by the mission of the Program.

What do I do now?

- Visit www.ucwcp.com to find a provider within the Exclusive Provider Organization (EPO).
- Select the "Find a Doctor" link in the navigation bar.
- Watch "Video Tutorial: How to find a primary physician within the Exclusive Provider Organization (EPO)".
- Identify a Primary Care Physician or Clinic for injury care near your office or job site.
- Use the "Establishing a Designated Provider Relationship" guide and talk with your designated provider before the job starts.
- Post the information at the jobsite, office, or distribute to supervisory staff using the "Designated Provider Map Template".
